Institutional and federal grant and aid awards are based on the information provided above and on your FAFSA and other supporting documents, if required. Aid could be reduced if actual enrollment is lower than projected. Some awards may be contingent on available funding. If you have questions about how changes in your enrollment may affect your aid, please contact Benjamin Breault: bbreault@hartfordinternational.edu. Total aid cannot exceed your cost of attendance. Students must maintain Satisfactory Academic Progress. Students must be matriculated in an eligible degree program, and only courses that count toward degree program requirements are aid eligible.
